1 Introduction

The SCREEN brochure will be used as a dissemination tool that can be easily handed out to the public or target communities, at conferences or events, in order to promote the project objectives, concept and partners, together with the potential benefits that the project results can bring, especially to the SatCom market. The next sections show the brochure layout and content in more detail.

2 Brochure Design and Content

2.1 Brochure Design

The SCREEN brochure was developed using a three column (triptych) template. Figure 1 and Figure 2 show the brochure front and back sides respectively. The design approach followed consists in a background image from a SatCom satellite (courtesy of AVANTI), in a dark blue colour, and white text. The layout consists in 3 columns.
